

Pak. J. Nematol., 5 (1): 1-4, 1987.

DESCRIPTION OF TYLENCHUS NARANENSIS N. SP.
(NEMATODA: TYLENCHINAE)

M.A. MAQBOOL, B. ZARINA AND P. GHAZALA

*National Nematological Research Centre,
University of Karachi, Karachi-32, Pakistan.*

Abstract

Tylenchus naranensis n. sp. is described and illustrated from the specimens collected around the roots of a commonly occurring weed plant (Silene conoidea L.) at Naran in North West Frontier Province of Pakistan. This new species differ from all the known members of Tylenchus Bastian, 1865, in having shorter stylet with longer body and position of vulva.